

Policies and regulations of Harvest Gathering Events and website

Section 1: Waiver

1.0 The Harvest Gathering is a volunteer run event. It is not put on by an organization or individual. All participants are responsible for themselves & their children and their own well being; including personnel safety.

1.1 Personal set-up, day to day logistics and grounds clean-up are individual responsibilities and you are part of a community that has focused crews that you will be asked to volunteer for. It is an expectation that you volunteer for a work crew and help with tasks such as: cutting firewood, maintaining wash stations, camp clean up, outhouse clean up, etc.

1.2 In all workshops, demonstrations, and excursions conducted by the Harvest Gathering organizers, landowners and associates; reasonable care is taken to prevent serious injuries and to minimize accidents.

1.3 The Participants states that he/she is fully aware that survival, tracking, awareness training, and all other workshops and activities, even when care is taken, may be dangerous, and the Participant hereby agrees to accept full responsibility and assume all risks, including those caused by acts of God, injury, death, incompetence, and/or loss to his/her person and/or property knowingly and voluntarily.

1.4 The Participants agree to obey the rules and regulations set forth by organizers, landowners and associates, put into effect to minimize these risks, and outlined below. Further regulation may be enacted and enforced during the event by event organizers in the interest of public safety and enjoyment. All participants must follow these rules and instructions at all times, or be removed from the property by the organizers without refund or rebuttal.

1.5 The Participant knowingly, voluntarily, and irrevocably waives any and all past, present, and/or future injuries, death, or loss, including those caused by acts of God, received while participating in activities conducted at the Harvest Gathering by any of the organizers, landowners and associates, as a participant, spectator, and/or visitor, or in any other manner or form, taking part in the exercises, practices, excursions, and/or demonstrations of said survival, tracking, awareness training.

1.6 The participant certifies that he/she is physically capable to participate in the said survival, tracking, awareness program despite the rigors and dangers inherent in such an undertaking. The Participant accepts all responsibility for injury, death, and/or loss to his/her person and/or property, including those caused by acts of God, for the rigors and dangers inherent in the undertaking.

Section 2: Site regulations

2.0 All those in attendance must purchase a wristband indicating proof of admission, and display it at all times while at the event. Not only does this wristband serve as proof of purchase, but also acceptance of all sections of this document, as indicated in the enrollment form.

2.1 The event organizers, and active Duty Officer have the final say in all matters of rules, and safety, and can remove any persons found not to be in compliance, without refund.

2.2 All laws and legislations relevant to the jurisdiction where the event is taking place are to be followed without evasion or omission.

2.3 Alcohol should only be consumed in moderation as this is a family event, and mental faculties are important for wilderness safety. Anyone found to be intoxicated beyond a reasonable manner can be removed by either taxi, or emergency services, at the participant's expense.

2.4 Bringing dogs or other pets to the gathering is allowed, but discouraged. Dogs must be leashed at all times, and must neither endanger, nor diminish the enjoyment of other participants in the event. Event organizers or the active Duty Officer may request an animal be removed from the General area, and placed in a secure location where both the animal and other participants are safe. Owners are responsible for their pets, including the removal of all waste products from the general areas of the Gathering.

2.5 Due to the amount of people attending the event, there is to be no usage, display, or discharge of firearms, except in serious cases of emergency, and as approved by the active Duty Officer.

2.6 All actions and behaviour should fall within the reasonable intention of allowing all participants to fully enjoy the experience of the event without feelings of hardship, bias, abuse, profiling, or discrimination.

2.7 All recyclables, and refuse materials brought onto the event site must be removed by the individual. Those caught littering or dumping of materials may be asked to leave.

Section 3: Personal Information Protection Policy

This privacy policy has been compiled to better serve those who are concerned with how their 'Personally identifiable information' (PII) is being used online. PII, as used in Canadian privacy law and information security, is information that can be used on its own or with other information to identify, contact, or locate a single person, or to identify an individual in context. Please read our privacy policy carefully to get a clear understanding of how we collect, use, protect or otherwise handle your Personally Identifiable Information in accordance with our website.

What personal information do we collect from the people that visit our blog, website or app?

When ordering or registering on our site, as appropriate, you may be asked to enter your name, email address, mailing address, phone number, Medical Information or other details to help you with your experience.

When do we collect information?

We collect information from you when you register on our site, subscribe to a newsletter, fill out a form or enter information on our site.

How do we use your information?

We may use the information we collect from you when you register, make a purchase, sign up for our newsletter, respond to a survey or marketing communication, surf the website, or use certain other site features in the following ways:

- To allow us to better service you in responding to your customer service requests.
- To administer a contest, promotion, survey or other site feature.
- To quickly process your transactions.
- To send periodic emails regarding your order or other products and services.

How do we protect visitor information?

We do not use vulnerability scanning and/or scanning to PCI standards.
We do not use Malware Scanning.

We do not use an SSL certificate

- We do not need an SSL because:

All information is stored locally, and not on www.harvestgathering.ca

Do we use 'cookies'?

We do not use cookies for tracking purposes

You can choose to have your computer warn you each time a cookie is being sent, or you can choose to turn off all cookies. You do this through your browser (like Internet Explorer) settings. Each browser is a little different, so look at your browser's Help menu to learn the correct way to modify your cookies.

If you disable cookies off, some features will be disabled that make your site experience more efficient and some of our services will not function properly.

However, you can still place orders .

Third Party Disclosure

We do not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer to outside parties your personally identifiable information unless we provide you with advance notice. This does not include website hosting partners and other parties who assist us in operating our website, conducting our business, or servicing you, so long as those parties agree to keep this information confidential. We may also release your information when we believe release is appropriate to comply with the law, enforce our site policies, or protect ours or others' rights, property, or safety.

However, non-personally identifiable visitor information may be provided to other parties for marketing, advertising, or other uses.

Third party links

Occasionally, at our discretion, we may include or offer third party products or services on our website. These third party sites have separate and independent privacy policies. We therefore have no responsibility or liability for the content and activities of these linked sites. Nonetheless, we seek to protect the integrity of our site and welcome any feedback about these sites.

Google

Google's advertising requirements can be summed up by Google's Advertising Principles. They are put in place to provide a positive experience for users.
<https://support.google.com/adwordspolicy/answer/1316548?hl=en>

We use Google AdSense Advertising on our website.

Google, as a third party vendor, uses cookies to serve ads on our site. Google's use of the DART cookie enables it to serve ads to our users based on their visit to our site and other sites on the Internet. Users may opt out of the use of the DART cookie by visiting the Google ad and content network privacy policy.

We have implemented the following:

- Remarketing with Google AdSense

We along with third-party vendors, such as Google use first-party cookies (such as the Google Analytics cookies) and third-party cookies (such as the DoubleClick cookie) or other third-party identifiers together to compile data regarding user interactions with ad impressions, and other ad service functions as they relate to our website.

Opting out:

Users can set preferences for how Google advertises to you using the Google Ad Settings page. Alternatively, you can opt out by visiting the Network Advertising initiative opt out page or permanently using the Google Analytics Opt Out Browser add on.

California Online Privacy Protection Act

CalOPPA is the first state law in the nation to require commercial websites and online services to post a privacy policy. The law's reach stretches well beyond California to require a person or company in the United States (and conceivably the world) that operates websites collecting personally identifiable information from California consumers to post a conspicuous privacy policy on its website stating exactly the information being collected and those individuals with whom it is being shared, and to comply with this policy. - See more at: <http://consumercal.org/california-online-privacy-protection-act-caloppa/#sthash.0FdRbT51.dpuf>

According to CalOPPA we agree to the following:

Users can visit our site anonymously

Once this privacy policy is created, we will add a link to it on our home page, or as a minimum on the first significant page after entering our website.

Our Privacy Policy link includes the word 'Privacy', and can be easily be found on the page specified above.

Users will be notified of any privacy policy changes:

- Via Email

Users are able to change their personal information:

- By emailing us

How does our site handle do not track signals?

We honor do not track signals and do not track, plant cookies, or use advertising when a Do Not Track (DNT) browser mechanism is in place.

Does our site allow third party behavioral tracking?

It's also important to note that we do not allow third party behavioral tracking

COPPA (Children Online Privacy Protection Act)

When it comes to the collection of personal information from children under 13, the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) puts parents in control. The Federal Trade Commission, the nation's consumer protection agency, enforces the COPPA Rule, which spells out what operators of websites and online services must do to protect children's privacy and safety online.

We do not specifically market to children under 13.

Fair Information Practices

The Fair Information Practices Principles form the backbone of privacy law in the United States and the concepts they include have played a significant role in the development of data protection laws around the globe. Understanding the Fair Information Practice Principles and how they should be implemented is critical to comply with the various privacy laws that protect personal information.

In order to be in line with Fair Information Practices we will take the following responsive action, should a data breach occur:

We will notify the users via email

- Within 7 business days

We also agree to the individual redress principle, which requires that individuals have a right to pursue legally enforceable rights against data collectors and processors who fail to adhere to the law. This principle requires not only that individuals have enforceable rights against data users, but also that individuals have recourse to courts or a government agency to investigate and/or prosecute non-compliance by data processors.

CAN SPAM Act

The CAN-SPAM Act is a law that sets the rules for commercial email, establishes requirements for commercial messages, gives recipients the right to have emails stopped from being sent to them, and spells out tough penalties for violations.

We collect your email address in order to:

- Send information, respond to inquiries, and/or other requests or questions.

- Process orders and to send information and updates pertaining to orders
- We may also send you additional information related to your product and/or service.
 - Market to our mailing list or continue to send emails to our clients after the original transaction has occurred

To be in accordance with CANSPAM we agree to the following:

- NOT use false, or misleading subjects or email addresses
- Identify the message as an advertisement in some reasonable way
- Include the physical address of our business or site headquarters
- Monitor third party email marketing services for compliance, if one is used.
- Honor opt-out/unsubscribe requests quickly
- Allow users to unsubscribe by using the link at the bottom of each email

If at any time you would like to unsubscribe from receiving future emails, you can Email us at darian@harvestgathering.ca and we will promptly remove you from ALL correspondence.
